Block 10: Oatmeal Raisin Cookie

Finished Size: 12" x 12"

Oh, the smell of Oatmeal Raisin Cookies coming from my mom's kitchen-now that brings back memories. We will be making lots of Half-square Triangles this month.

I hope you will consider joining my Facebook Sew Along Group. I love seeing what you make! There are quilters of all levels sewing along with me there and it is such a treat for me to get to know each one through this group.

Color it Your Way

Making the Rectangle Pairs

Join the B and C rectangles together as shown.
Press towards B.

You will have a total of four of these units which should measure $4\frac{1}{2}$ " x $4\frac{1}{2}$ ".

Making the Half-square Triangles (HST)

(1) Begin by making the D/E combination. Draw a diagonal line on the back of both D squares. Place right sides together on two E squares.

(2) Sew $\frac{1}{4}$ " from each side of the drawn line.

(3) Cut apart on the drawn line.

(4) Press towards the E triangles as indicated by arrows.
Trim the HST's to 2½" x 2½". You will have a total of four.

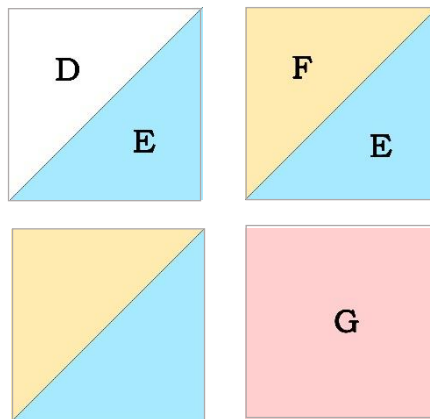

(5) Repeat steps 1-4 using the E and F squares to make a total of eight E/F Half-square Triangles. Press towards E. These should also be trimmed to 2½" x 2½".

Making the Corner Units

(1) Lay out the D/E and E/F Half-square Triangles with the G squares as shown.

(2) Join together into pairs and press as indicated.

(3) Join the pairs together to make four Corner Units. Press as indicated.
The Corner Units should measure $4\frac{1}{2}$ " x $4\frac{1}{2}$ "

Putting the Block Together

(1) Lay out the Corner Units, the Rectangle Units, and the A square as shown.

(2) Join together into rows matching seams. Press as indicated.

(3) Join the rows together matching seams and pinning as desired. Press as indicated to finish the block.

The unfinished size of this block now measures 12 1/2" x 12 1/2"

A Note about Copyright: The pattern itself is copyrighted. Basically, please do not make copies of my patterns for others in either print or digital form. I would love it if you would direct people to my website to download their own copies of my patterns; in this way you will be thanking me for my work and supporting what I provide to you.

Yes, you can sell your items made from my patterns.

Any physical items you create with my patterns are yours and there are no restrictions on what you can do with them. So go ahead and enter them in show, sell them, donate them for auctions, etc. You are not required to mention Debra Davis or Tuning My Heart Quilts in any way.

However, it does help me out a lot when you do.

When you share the project and tell your friends about me and my quilt designs and tutorials, it helps me stay in business and support my family. I really do appreciate it when you share and let others know you found my quilting tutorials and patterns helpful.

So attribution is not required, but definitely appreciated!

Please pay it forward and pay it back and let me know when you create a quilt from one of my patterns.
